Unknown Publication, Unknown Date

Elmer Abbet, fifteen year old son of Eli Abbet living near Tuscumbia, died suddenly on his way home from church Sunday afternoon. His untimely death, so we are informed, was due to indigestion of the stomach caused by the overeating of green apples and drinking too freely of cold water. His two companions, with him when death came, did everything in their power to bring relief but of no avail.

The sad news of his death came as a shock to his parents because on his departure from home Sunday morning he was enjoying the vigorous health of youth. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C.M. Sooter Monday afternoon after which interment was made in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Notes for Madison Bear:

My grandfather on my mother's side was Madison Bear, the son of David C. and grandson of George Bear, the original Bear who came with his family to the county in the 1850's. Madison first farmed the family farm located on Dog Creek south of the river and about three miles from Tuscumbia, then moved to Tuscumbia to run the Farmer's Exchange. Later he had his own general store in a two story stone building called the "Woodman's Hall", located on the same street as Hauensteins store but a little further to the east. He also ran a second general store in Old Bagnell for ten years during the time and after that the dam was being built. Later, he had two other similar type stores at different times in Tuscumbia. before serving as county treasurer for two terms. He was born in 1889 and died in 1971. He was a father to me growing up as my dad was too busy to be around me much then.

-Joe Pryor

History of Miller County By Gerard Schultz, 1933

Madison Bear, merchant at Tuscumbia and Bagnell, was born on a farm three miles east of Tuscumbia on June 22, 1889. His father, David C. Bear, was born in Hocking County, Ohio, on November 10, 1853. He was a prosperous farmer and an enterprising citizen of Miller County, having come here with his parents in 1857. Madison's mother, Mary (Winfrey) Bear, was born June 29, 1855, in Miller County, of Kentuckian parents. His paternal ancestors were Pennsylvania Dutch, having come originally from Switzerland.

On December 25, 1908, Mr. Bear was married to Miss Sadie Abbett, at the home of her parents, Eli and Susie Abbett. Mrs. Bear is also of Pennsylvania Dutch stock. Mr. and Mrs. Bear have five children: Arthur, Marie, David, Susie and Bonnie.

Mr. Bear has real business ability. He started in the merchandise business at Tuscumbia and at the present he has a store there which his son, Arthur, operates. He established a store at Bagnell in 1929, when the Osage Dam was being constructed. Although this store was destroyed by fire in February, 1932, Mr. Bear is again doing a good merchandise business at Bagnell. For a number of years he was manager of the Tuscumbia Farmers Exchange.

May 25, 2003

I was with Prue (Abbett), Humphrey and her present husband, Jennings Mckee this morning at Brays Union Advent Church today. She was was married to Clyde Humphrey's son Norman. Clyde is Martin Humphrey's son. Prues son "Marty" was named after his grandfather Martin who everyone called "Uncle Mart". The Humphreys lived in a circle all around the Union Advent Church and many of their old buildings are still up there in the woods. Someone bought Clyde Humphreys place and moved it. They wanted the Log Cabin part of it. They gave 10,000 dollars for the one room cabin. I got a picture of it before they took it down log by log. They numbered the logs and re-assembled it somewhere else. I think Tennessee.
