Notes for Ambrose Brockman:

Tuscumbia, Missouri, Thursday, June 25, 1914

Ambrose Brockman was born March 16, 1838. He was married to Sarah Ann Conner May 9th 1861. To this union was born three sons and one daughter. The oldest son, Henry, died at the age of seven months. Jas. W. Brockman, the second son, died at the age of thirty nine. Sarah, a wife of Ambrose Brockman, died June 24th 1888. One son, Judge J.N. Brockman, and one daughter, Mrs. J.A. Roark, survive him.

He joined the Baptist Church at Flatwoods Church in 1884. On November 16th, 1897, he was united in marriage to Martha M. Miller, who lived in Moniteau County, after which he moved to that county, four miles northwest of Olean. He there put his membership with the Baptist Church of Olean. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity. He and his wife were both members of the order of Eastern Star.

The body was brought to Tuscumbia by Undertaker Phillips of Eldon, accompanied by friends and relatives and an escort from the lodges of Olean and Eldon of the Masonic order. On arrival at Tuscumbia the Masons took charge and conveyed the body to the Baptist Church where Bro. Self preached a very appropriate sermon. Very excellent song service was rendered at the church, conducted by Mr. Walter Stillwell, assisted by the young people of Tuscumbia. After the services at the church the body was taken in charge by the Masons and conveyed to the cemetery known as the Flatwoods or Scott Cemetery, where the concluding ceremonies of a Masonic burial were had, conducted by Senator W.S. Allee of Olean. John Brockman, father of the deceased, was born December 13th 1798, and settled in Miller County at what is known as the Brockman Ford of the Osage River.

Uncle Ambrose expressed a desire before he died that he be buried by his first wife on the Osage.
