Notes for Martha V. Challes:

Obituary: Miller Co Autogram, July, 1922

Tuscumbia and community were saddened Monday when Mrs. Mat V. Hauenstein passed away at 9:40 pm. (12 July, 1922). She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Challes and was born on a farm four miles west of Tuscumbia, Mo., December 8, 1852 and was 69 years, 2 months and 5 days old at the time of her death. In 1871(14 March), she was married to Dan Henley. To this union one child was born---Mrs. Effie Adcock, of Eldon, who survives her. Mr. Henley died in 1881.

February 4, 1884, Mrs. Henley was married to William H. Hauenstein and three children were born to this union---Lela, who was married to Edward P. Clark, she having died December 10, 1914. Billie Hauenstein, who survives and now lives at Eldon; and Elizabeth Wright, who, with her husband and children, lived with her mother at the time of her death.

Mrs. Hauenstein was a devoted Christian, having united with the Methodist church in early life. She had been a constant but patient sufferer with rheumatism for 10 years, but did not become seriously sick till last week.

Aunt Mat, as she was familiarly known to her friends, was an affectionate mother and a kind neighbor. The evening of her life was spent in suffering, but she always enjoyed having her friends about her and conversed with relatives and friends till only a few hours before death.

Services are to be held, today (Wednesday) at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church and conducted by Rev. Fred E Miles, pastor of the Methodist church---Burial will be in the family lot in the Tuscumbia Cemetery.

All () were added and were not part of the obituary. Mattie Hauenstein was the daughter of Joseph Bennett Challes and Lavicia Ann Smith daughter of Champ and Martha Sellars Smith and was the grand daughter of Charles Smith Rev. War soldier buried in Miller Co. Her daughter Elizabeth Hauenstien Wright was the wife of Homer Lee Wright.

Notes for William Henry Hauenstein, Jr.:
Obituary: Unknown Publication, 1936

Capt. William H. Hauenstein, Tuscumbia's oldest resident, passed peacefully away Tuesday night at 10:30 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. L. Wright: taking from our midst a citizen who was prominently identified with the public and business life of Tuscumbia since 1865 until incapacitated by age.

Capt. Hauenstein was born in Germany May 12, 1846, a son of William H and Elizabeth Hauenstein, natives of the Rhine Country in Bavaria. He was therefore 89 years of age at the time of his death. The Hauensteins came to America in 1852, landing at New York. A short time later they came to Rover Raisin country on the west end of Lake Erie, Monroe County, Michigan. The subject of this sketch received his education at Detroit and Toledo.

In 1859 the family moved to Boonville, coming by boat from St. Louis, but soon came out to California, Moniteau County, where the father engaged in the mercantile business until they came to Miller County.

At the age of 18 years, while the family lived at California, he joined the Union army, was assigned to the Second Missouri Artillery, and took part in the battles of Big Blue and Mine Creek. Capt. Hauenstein always took great interest in steamboats and in 1870 his father acquired the "Alice Gray", a boat which plied the Osage between Tuscumbia and Osage City. Capt. Hauenstein conceived the idea of building a light draft boat and a barge, the boat for propelling, and the barge to carry the cargo, thus making it possible to operate on the Osage River when other boats of a heavier craft could not. The result was that in 1882 he built the steamer "Frederick" at Tuscumbia. The boat was 100 feet in length. It was later acquired by his brother-in-law, Capt. R. M. Marshall, who operated this boat with the Str. "Hugo" a larger craft, on the Osage and Missouri for many years. Capt. Hauenstein was in the river trade for 15 years, then engaged in the mercantile business at Tuscumbia a number of years, taking an active part in business, church, and political affairs. He also acquired considerable land in this county, and became interested in pure bred live stock. When the Bank of Tuscumbia was organized 1893, he was one of the shareholders, and was the Bank's first cashier. However, he soon relinquished this position to take care of his large real estate holdings. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church here and was a Royal Arch Mason.

Capt Hauenstein was married twice, his first wife being Elizabeth Goodrich, daughter of Judge and Mrs. I. M. Goodrich. In 1872, nine years after their marriage, she lost her life when she fell from a boat returning to Tuscumbia from St. Louis and drowned. There is one son, Frederick Hauenstein, of Exeter, California, who survives by this marriage.

In 1884, he was married a second time to Mrs. Martha (Challes) Henley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Challes, and she died in 1922. By this marriage there are two surviving children, -----Mrs. H. L. (Elizabeth) Wright, with whom he made his home here for several years and at the time of his death; and William H. Hauenstein, Jr., Osage River farmer of near Tuscumbia. A daughter, Mrs E. P. (Lela) Clark died in 1914.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. R. M. (Emma) Marshall of Tuscumbia. Arrangements have been made to hold funeral services at the Presbyterian Church at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, services to be conducted by Rev. C. Smutz, the pastor

Notes for Edward Pinckney Clark:

Unknown Publication, April 1938

Edward P. Clark, for twelve years County Clerk of Miller County, died suddenly at the home of Mrs. Grace Eilerts, where he had rooms, Friday evening after returning from his place of business. The funeral was held at Tuscumbia Presbyterian Church Monday afternoon by the Rev. Raymond J. Gilbreath, pastor of the Eldon M.E. Church.

Edward Pinkney Clark was born near Olean, June 11, 1878, the tenth and last child of W.G. Clark, known as Uncle Billy Clark, and Margaret Kelsay Clark, both deceased. He was married to Miss Lena Hauenstein of Tuscumbia, January 17, 1911. To them one child was born, Genevieve Clark, who is now in the hospital in Kansas City. Mrs. Clark died in 1914.

Besides the one daughter, Mr. Clark is survived by a sister, Mrs. Annie Lawson, who at the present time is making her home with ther daughter, Mrs. Elmer M. Scott.

Mr. Clark was elected to the office of County Clerk on the Republican ticket in 1918, 1922, and 1926. Later he was employed by the Union Electric Light & Power Company during the construction of Bagnell Dam. For the past few yers he had suffered from heart attacks and it was necessary for him to be very careful and it is probable that walking home in the cold hard wind Friday evening caused the sudden attack.

Burial was made at Tuscumbia cemetery with Masonic ritual ceremony at the grave, George Catron of Eldon, Master of Ionia Lodge No. 381, in charge. Mr. Clark became a member of the Masonic order at Eldon when Tuscumbia Lodge disbanded.
