

- <http://www.answers.com/topic/carriages-related-word-list>
- araba - cab or coach (Turkey)
- barouche - four-wheel carriage with facing double seats and folding top
- berlin - four-wheel carriage with suspended body (Germany, 18th c.)
- brougham - low, closed, four-wheel carriage for two passengers with driver's seat outside
- buckboard - four-wheel carriage with seat mounted on springlike board
- buggy - light, four-wheel, one-horse, two-passenger carriage
- cab - orig. cabriolet; light closed carriage for hire
- cabriolet - light, two-wheel, one-horse carriage with folding hood
- calash - caleche
- caleche - carriage with two small wheels in front and folding top; calash
- cariole - light, one-horse carriage
- caroche - luxurious, horse-drawn carriage
- carriage - any horse-drawn vehicle, esp. for private use
- carromata - light, two-wheel carriage with single pony (Philippines)
- carrvall - light, covered carriage that seats four or more
- cart - heavy, horse-drawn, two-wheel carriage used for hauling freight
- chaise - small, usu. two-wheel carriage suspended on leather straps
- charabanc - large sightseeing coach
- chariot - ancient, two-wheel, seatless, horse-drawn battle car
- chuckwagon - large, closed supply wagon (U.S. West, 19th c.)
- clarence - closed, four-wheel, four-seat carriage with driver outside; growler
- coach - large, four-wheel, enclosed carriage with driver's seat outside
- Concord buggy - large, covered, four-wheel carriage with driver's seat outside and covered baggage compartment
- Conestoga - broad-wheeled covered wagon drawn by six horses
- coupe - enclosed, four-wheel carriage with driver's seat outside
- covered wagon - large, canvas-topped, four-wheel vehicle for moving families west (U.S., 19th c.)
- curricule - light, two-wheel carriage drawn by two horses abreast (18th-19th c.)
- diligence - four-wheel, four-horse public stagecoach (France, 18th c.)
- dogcart - light, usu. one-horse, two-wheel cart with two transverse seats back-to-back
- dos-a-dos - four-wheel dogcart with seats set back-to-back
- Dougherty wagon - passenger wagon on steel springs (U.S. West, 19th c.)
- drag - large, private, four-horse sporting coach with roof, rumble seats, and enclosed compartment
- dray - low, sturdy cargo cart with detachable sides
- droshky - low, open, four-wheel carriage with narrow bench (Russia)
- fiacre - small, four-wheel hackney coach
- fly - horse-drawn public coach or delivery wagon

- four-in-hand - carriage drawn by four horses
- Germantown - two- or three-seat carriage, esp. in Pennsylvania
- gharry - horse-drawn cab (India, Egypt)
- gig - light, two-wheel, one-horse carriage
- growler - Brit. slang. clarence
- hack - hackney
- hackney - four-wheel, two-horse, six-seat carriage kept for hire; hack
- hansom - two-wheel, two-horse, two-passenger, covered carriage with driver's seat elevated at rear; hansom cab
- hansom cab - hansom
- herdic - horse-drawn omnibus with side seats and rear entrance (U.S., 19th c.)
- jaunting car - light, two-wheel, open vehicle with lengthwise back-to-back seats
- landau - large, four-wheel carriage with top that folds into two parts (Germany)
- mudwagon - flat-sided, simple stagecoach, smaller than Concord
- phaeton - light, four-wheel carriage with seats front and rear, folding cover, and no coachman's seat
- post chaise - four-wheel coach, used to carry mail and passengers (18th-19th c.)
- prairie schooner - broad-wheeled covered wagon used in cross-country travel (U.S. West)
- quadriga - two-wheel chariot drawn by four horses (ancient Rome)
- rig - general term for carriage and horse
- rockaway - carriage with enclosed top (U.S., 19th c.)
- runabout - topless buggy
- shandrydan - hooded chaise; rickety carriage
- spider phaeton - very high, light carriage with covered seat and rear footman's seat
- spring wagon - light, versatile wagon with removable seats and canopy top
- stagecoach - public passenger and mail coach that ran on regular schedule (U.S. West, 19th c.)
- stanhope - light, open, one-seat, two-wheel carriage
- sulky - light, one-passenger, two-wheel carriage used in trotting races
- surrey - modest, four-wheel, two-seat carriage used for pleasure or to carry family, with or without top
- tandem - two-seat carriage drawn by team of horses harnessed one before the other
- tilbury - light, two-wheel gig
- tonga - two-wheel carriage (India)
- trap - light, one-horse carriage with springs
- troika - sleigh or carriage drawn by three horses abreast (Russia)
- victoria - large, luxurious, four-wheel, two-horse carriage
- volante - two-wheel carriage with axle behind body and driver riding horse (Cuba)

Read more: <http://www.answers.com/topic/carriages-related-word-list#ixzz1HqMmSsY5>