BROWN SCHOOLS

Taken from Brown Schools by Peggy Smith Hake

There have been three different Brown schools of eastern Richwoods Township that have existed over the past century. The original Brown school was designated School #1 Township 39 Range 12 of Miller County. It was located in northeastern Richwoods Township near the Maries County boundary line. Old Brown school was a small one-room log building which sat near Greasy creek, west of present-day Highway 42. It sat on land that was owned for many years by the Hannah family.

According to Harry Patterson (now deceased), who attended the school as a child, the second Brown school was built east of Highway 42 on the Faith Tabernacle Road. It was a frame building and was still in existence in the early 1990s. It is no longer standing on the original site, but was moved a few miles over on Weimmer Creek and became part of the dwelling place that was owned by Ted and Reba (Morrow) Luebbert several years ago. The home was sold in the past few years and I believe it belongs to the Schulte family today.

The third Brown school was built alongside Highway 42 on the west side of the road. It was a two-room, native stone building and was used until the Iberia School system consolidated all the country schools in the late 1940s. Today the third Brown school has been converted into a private home.

The following families had children attending Brown School in the 1890s: Burns, Barnhart, Brandon, Boyd, Goff, Grosvenor, Hickey, Lawson, Lee, Montgomery, Pendleton, Palmer, Rowden, Renfrow, Shaner, Shelton, Shephard, Sherrell, Stout, Whitaker, Wilson, and Williams.
